EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED I ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) Aution 25 REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED information 1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, accurace observed no aircraft parked at Welsow astriald. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of engines was beard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model MA 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field and harch were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 3. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field. No additional aircraft were observed the southern section of the field. There was no air activity. 1 4. The two radar sets of model AA I MK 2, formerly observed at the northern edge 25 of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AA I MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the roads fork north of Lindonfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm of 85-mm AA gms. Radio installations available included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a PKV-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lame between the runway and and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the runway and are pky-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welsow sirfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these desents. 2 Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welsow sirfield probably were ab	•
COUNTRY Melsow Aftifield 25 EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED 25 EVALUATION DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED 25 DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED 25 REFERENCES 25 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TWFS) 25 REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED information 25 REMARKS 11 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TWFS) 25 REMARKS 25 This is UNEVALUATED information 25 26 27 28 REMARKS 26 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TWFS) 25 27 REMARKS 27 The field as the sound of exgines was heard from the southern section. No arr activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.		CLASSIFICATION_SEC	631103
EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED I ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE) Aution 25 REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED information 1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, accurace observed no aircraft parked at Welsow astriald. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of engines was beard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model MA 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field and harch were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 3. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field. No additional aircraft were observed the southern section of the field. There was no air activity. 1 4. The two radar sets of model AA I MK 2, formerly observed at the northern edge 25 of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AA I MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the roads fork north of Lindonfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm of 85-mm AA gms. Radio installations available included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a PKV-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lame between the runway and and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the runway and are pky-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welsow sirfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these desents. 2 Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welsow sirfield probably were ab	COUNTRY			Γ
DATE OFTAINED DATE OFTAINED DATE PREPARED 21          *	TOPIC Wel	zow Aitf eld			25X ²
DATE OFFICIAL DATE OFFI					25X1
DATE ORTANED DATE PREPARED 21 25 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (M. a TWPE) 1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welsow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of engines was heard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 3. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field, No additional aircraft were observed at the northern edge of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AA 1 MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the road fork north of indenfeld, About 100 maters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AA guns. Radio installations available included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a FAV-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lane between the runway end and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the relivoad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, were observed shirming billeting sometoment toward Cottbus. 1. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment toward Cottbus. 2. Comment. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations The Token-type radar set which was observed by another source for the first time on 9 April 1954, appears to be confirmed. The radio installation have repeated!	EVALUATION	PLAC	CE ORTAINED.		25X1
DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 21 DATE PREPARED 1 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 25 PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 27 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 28 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 29 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 21 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 22 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 23 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 24 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 25 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 27 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 28 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 29 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 29 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 21 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 22 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 23 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 24 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 25 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 27 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 28 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 29 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 29 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 21 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 22 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 23 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 24 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 25 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 27 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 28 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 29 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 21 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 22 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 25 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 27 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 28 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 29 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSURES (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 21 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 22 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 23 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 24 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 25 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 26 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 27 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 28 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 29 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 20 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 21 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 21 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 22 ENCLOSED (MO. 2 TWPE) 25 ENCLO		* .			25X′
REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TWPE) 25 REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED information 1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welsow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of segimes use heard from the southern section. He are activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model MA 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 3. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field. No additional aircraft were observed the southern section of the field. There was no air activity. 1 4. The two radar sets of model AM I MK 2, formerly observed at the northern edge 2c of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor wehicles were parked nearby. A model AM 1 MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the road fork north of Linderfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the road fork north of Linderfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AM guns. Radio installations awallable included a previously observed radio installation with one mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a FNV-45 DF station northeast of Generator. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lane between the runway end and the raliroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the raliroad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, were observed shirming billeting southment toward Cottbus. 1. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welsow airfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these &cements. 2. Comment. The model AM 1 MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations T			' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' ' '	1 16 5 40 00 to 10 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00	25X1
PAGES 1 ENCLÖSURES (WO. & TWEE) 25 REMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welsow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of segines was heard from the southern section. Ho air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The nodel MA 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 3. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field. Wo additional aircraft were observed the southwestern corner of the field. How additional aircraft were observed at the northern edge 25 of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six notor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AM 1 MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the road fork north of Lindenfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AA guns. Radio installations awailable included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a FKV-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lane between the runway end all the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, ment toward Cottbus. 1. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welsow airfield probably were absent. Ho information has been received indicating the present location of these dements. 2. Comment. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations for both properties of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welsow airfield probably changed their locations for both properties of the second of these dements. 2. Comment. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations for Scho	DATE OBTAIN		DATE PREPARED	·····
1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welzow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of ergines was heard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model MA 1 MZ radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 3. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field, No additional aircraft were observed the southern section of the field. There was no air activity. I 4. The two radar sets of model AM I MZ 2, formerly observed at the northern edge of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AM 1 MZ 2 radar set was located northeast of the road fork north of lindenfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AM gums. Radio installations available included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a FNY-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lame between the runway and and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the reilroad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, were observed shipping billeting acuits ment previously stationed at Welsow airfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these dements. 2					25X1
1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welzow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of engines was heard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model Ma 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 2 3. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field. No additional aircraft were observed the southwestern section of the field. There was no air activity. 1 4. The two radar sets of model AM I MK 2, formerly observed at the northern edge 25 of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AM 1 MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the read fork north of lindenfeld. About 100 meters subcoated northeast of the read fork north of lindenfeld. About 100 meters are used to the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AM guns. Radio installations available included a previously observed radio installation with one mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a FNV-65 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lame between the runway and and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the railroad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, were observed shipming billeting southment toward Cottbus. 1	PAGES	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE	PE)		·····
1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welsow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of engines was heard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model AM 1 MK 2 redar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 3. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field, No additional aircraft were observed the southern section of the field. There was no air activity. I the two radar sets of model AM 1 MK 2, formerly observed at the northern edge 25 of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AM 1 MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the read fork north of Linderfield. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AM guns. Radio installation swallable included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a PKV-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lane between the runway end and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the railroad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, ment toward Cottbus. 1. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fightar regiment previously stationed at Welsow airfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these desents. 2. Comment. The model AM 1 MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations The Token-type radar set which was observed by another source for the first time on 9 April 1954 appears to be confirmed. The radio installations have repeated.	REMARKS	This is UNEVALUATE	D Information
1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welsow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of engines was heard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 2. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field. No additional aircraft were observed the southern section of the field. There was no air activity. 1 4. The two radar sets of model AA I MK 2, formerly observed at the northern edge 25 of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AA I MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the road fork north of Lindenfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AA guns. Radio installations available included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a PKV-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lane between the runway end and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the railroad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, were observed shipping believes the regiment toward Cottbus. 2. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welzow airfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these dements. 2. Comment. The model AA I MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations The Token-type radar set which was observed by another source for the first tim on 9 April 1954 appears to be confirmed. The radio installations have repeate			*
1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welsow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of engines was heard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 2. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field. No additional aircraft were observed the southern section of the field. There was no air activity. 1 4. The two radar sets of model AA I MK 2, formerly observed at the northern edge 25 of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AA I MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the road fork north of Lindenfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AA guns. Radio installations available included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a PKV-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lane between the runway end and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the railroad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, were observed shipping believes the regiment toward Cottbus. 2. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welzow airfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these dements. 2. Comment. The model AA I MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations The Token-type radar set which was observed by another source for the first tim on 9 April 1954 appears to be confirmed. The radio installations have repeate			 	The state of the s	·.··
1. Between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on 22 April 1954, source observed no aircraft parked at Welsow airfield. He believed, however, that jet aircraft were stationed at the field as the sound of engines was heard from the southern section. No air activity was observed between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. 1 2. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets which had been observed at the northern edge of the field in March were no longer located there, but a Token-type radar set was installed approximately at the former site of the sets. 2. On 29 April, only three swept-back jet aircraft were parked in the southwestern corner of the field. No additional aircraft were observed the southern section of the field. There was no air activity. 1 4. The two radar sets of model AA I MK 2, formerly observed at the northern edge 25 of the field, had been removed and were replaced by a Token-type radar set. Six motor vehicles were parked nearby. A model AA I MK 2 radar set was located northeast of the road fork north of Lindenfeld. About 100 meters southeast of the latter set was an emplacement with 4 x 76-mm or 85-mm AA guns. Radio installations available included a previously observed radio installation with on mast in the northeastern extension of the runway and a PKV-45 DF station northeast of Geisendorf. 5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lane between the runway end and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the railroad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, were observed shipping believes the regiment toward Cottbus. 2. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welzow airfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these dements. 2. Comment. The model AA I MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations The Token-type radar set which was observed by another source for the first tim on 9 April 1954 appears to be confirmed. The radio installations have repeate
5. Six red searchlights were located in the northeastern flying lane between the runway end and the railroad line. Another 3 red searchlights were seen between the railroad line and the radio installation with one mast. Individual trucks, were observed shipping billeting equipment toward Cottbus. 25 1. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welzow airfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these dements. 25 2. Comment. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations The Token-type radar set which was observed by another source for the first time on 9 April 1954 appears to be confirmed. The radio installations have repeatedly	3. 0 c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c c	ine field in March were no local stalled approximately at the southern section the southern section. The two radar sets of model and the field, had been removed in motor vehicles were parket or the latter set was an emplaced tallations available include the set in the northeastern extension.	onger located there, but he former site of the se to-back jet aircraft were tional aircraft were observed to the field. There was AA I MX 2, formerly observed and were replaced by sed nearby. A model AA 1 orth of Lindenfeld. About ment with 4 x 76-mm or sed a previously observed	parked in the southwest erved so no air activity. I rved at the northern ed a Token-type radar set. MK 2 radar set was located to meters southeast of 85-mm AA guns. Radio incredio installation with	tern ge 25X ted of h one
1. Comment. During the period of observation, elements of the fighter regiment previously stationed at Welzow airfield probably were absent. No information has been received indicating the present location of these dements. 25 2. Comment. The model AA 1 MK 2 radar sets probably changed their locations The Token-type radar set which was observed by another source for the first time on 9 April 1954 appears to be confirmed. The radio installations have repeated?	5. S r t	ix red searchlights were loc unway end and the railroad l the railroad line and the rad	line. Another 3 red sear lio installation with on	chlights were seen betwee mast. Individual truc	he sen ks, on 9 April 1954 appears to be confirmed. The radio installations have repeated:	2	ent previously stationed at tion has been received indica Comment. The model AA	Welzow airfield probablating the present location 1 MK 2 radar sets probable 1 MK 2 radar sets probabl	y were absent. No inform on of these dements. bly changed their locat:	gi- ra- 25X
	0	The Token-type radar set which on 9 April 1954 appears to be seen reported.	ch was observed by anoth e confirmed. The radio i	er source for the first
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/		CLASSIFICATION SE			